Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers!

Exams started Thursday, May 31, after an enjoyable Memorial Day holiday. On Friday, all our written work will be completed. We trust we will do as well on our finals as we have conscientiously reviewed for them.

Class Night will be held Friday evening, June 1, at 8:00 o'clock. The Seniors have been rehearsing for it, so plan to attend.

Sunday, June 3, the annual Baccalaureate will be held at 4:00 P. M. Rev. L. F. Griffin will deliver the sermon. Music will be furnished by the choir.

Saturday, June 2, the Senior Class picnic will be held at the residence of Mrs. O. W. Smith. The Seniors and their guests have planned a tasty picnic lunch, games, fishing, and weiner roast. Time is from 10:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M.

The Junior-Senior Prom was grand this year. The orchestra from Richmond was excellent—a special feature of the band was an electric organist. We'd like them to play for us again. Many thanks are due the Juniors and Mr. J. H. Clay, sponsor. The spring formals worn were lovely and the escorts in their white formal coats looked fine.

Gym Night was presented in a very fine manner last Wednesday evening. Every girl enrolled in Physical Education participated, under the direction of Mrs. H. P. James. Outstanding numbers were the Rhythm Tap done by students enrolled in P. E. 10, 11 and 12; a solo interpretative dance, by Frances Austin; a dance duo by Rosetta Lipford and Gladys Patterson, and a Tap by P. E. 8 and 9 girls.

On Tuesday evening, May 29, the Choir Recital was held under the direction of Miss Celestrial Sergeon. Outstanding numbers were the two opening selections, "The Heavens Resound," and "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God." A solo by Gloria Jenkins was well done.

Curtis Whitted and Edward Lilly from Morgan State College, were home Friday, May 25, to attend the Junior-Senior Prom. They returned to begin final exams on Monday, May 28. Curtis has maintained a 2.9 average for his first semester's work and now has a 3.3 average for the second semester's work (3.0 is a B average). We are proud of him.

Other college students who have returned home are: Sarah Watkins, Luvenia Johnson, and Cossie McCoy, from Virginia State; and Novella Hicks, of St. Paul Polytechnic Institute.

Lillie M. Lewis graduated Tuesday, May 29, from St. Paul Polytechnic Institute, majoring in Home Economics. She made a very high record while in college — serving as President of the Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society and Vice-President of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. She was a 1952 graduate of Carver-Price, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mace Lewis, of Towerhill community.

Until next week, our thought: "What makes greatness is starting something that lives after you."

A.H.S. Newscast

By Peggy Wooten

Hello there!

School days, school days, good old golden rule days. Yes, they are almost over, and it's almost time for you for some of us. When you see the beautiful green carpet of our campus roaming around, on which you know it's almost time to depart with them. And as they look upon their years of high school they begin to realize, not only have learned and accomplished but just how little they know. But they do not look back with regrets because they can see a bright future in the wide, wide world awaiting them if they will only strive for it. The doors of Appomattox High School will close for this year on Wednesday, June 6.

The graduation exercises will be held that night, also. Dr. Aubrey Kinsey will deliver the address to the graduate of 1956.

The Seniors have been laboring very hard over the graduation exercises trying to make them the best. The Class Night service will be held tomorrow night in the high school auditorium, at 8:00. The public is urged to attend.

All the students have been laboring over exams this week. Most of them have been taking two a day. Everywhere you looked, you'd see someone grasping some last minute information that might help them. Exams this week, but next week all the fun begins. Every class is planning a picnic at the lake or elsewhere. In all the free time available to students you will see various class committees working upon the menus and other details for the picnics.

If you happen to be doing any Spring cleaning and should run across some book belonging to our school library, please return it to our librarian, Miss Julia Asher. Or, if you should have an old copy of Metcalf's English literature that you don't want, the library would appreciate your donating it to our library, as books such as this one are badly needed by the young people who use the library.

Well, this is all the news for this week. See you for the last time next week.

Peggy.

NEW BOOK IN THE COUNTY LIBRARY

Case of the Demure Defendant, by Erle Stanley Gardner.

People did not see eye to eye about Nadine Farr. Some called her sweet, some called her sour. Some branded her a vivacious murderess and blackmailer. But all agreed that she was a very good looking young woman, a real knockout. Perry Mason reserved judgment and came up swinging on the count of being in the most harrowing legal quandle of his career. First, there was a corpse ... but no corpus delicti. Then there was too much accused of perjury. Erle Stanley Gardner has contrived a brilliant puzzle for this 30th case of his famous lawyer - detective, and Perry Mason pulls out all of the stops in a dazzling courtroom climax.
